Install Google Drive for desktop

Digital Technologies · Personal computers

You will

- download and install Google Drive for desktop
- sign in with your school account
- find Google Drive (G:) in File Explorer

You need

- a Windows computer you're allowed to install apps on (Chromebooks don't need this: use drive.google.com instead)
- your school Google account

Before you start

- On school computers it's already installed: see the guide Sign in to Google Drive for desktop.
- Ask whoever looks after your computer before you install anything.

1

Chrome › Google Drive download page

Go to `google.com/drive/download`.

Click Download Drive for desktop.

2

Chrome › Save As › only if it opens

Leave the name as `GoogleDriveSetup`.

Click Save.

Most computers skip this window and download straight away.

3

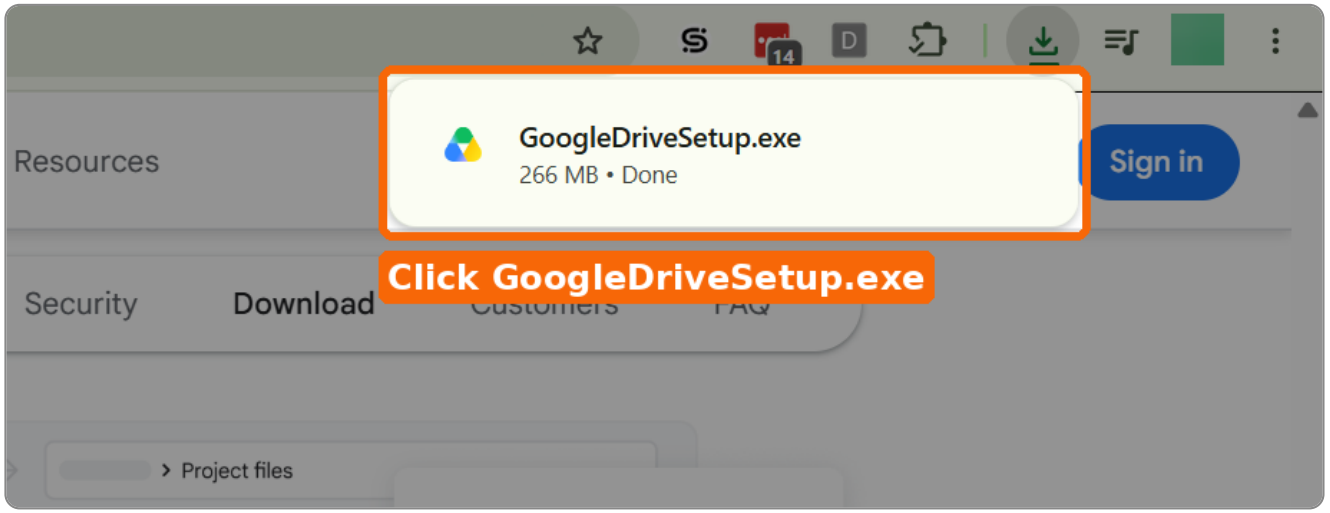

Chrome › Downloads

When it says Done, click `GoogleDriveSetup.exe`.

If Windows asks whether to allow the app to make changes, click Yes.

Can't see it? Press `Ctrl` + `J` to open your downloads.

If something goes wrong "A partially deleted previous installation was detected": click OK, restart your computer, then click the file again.

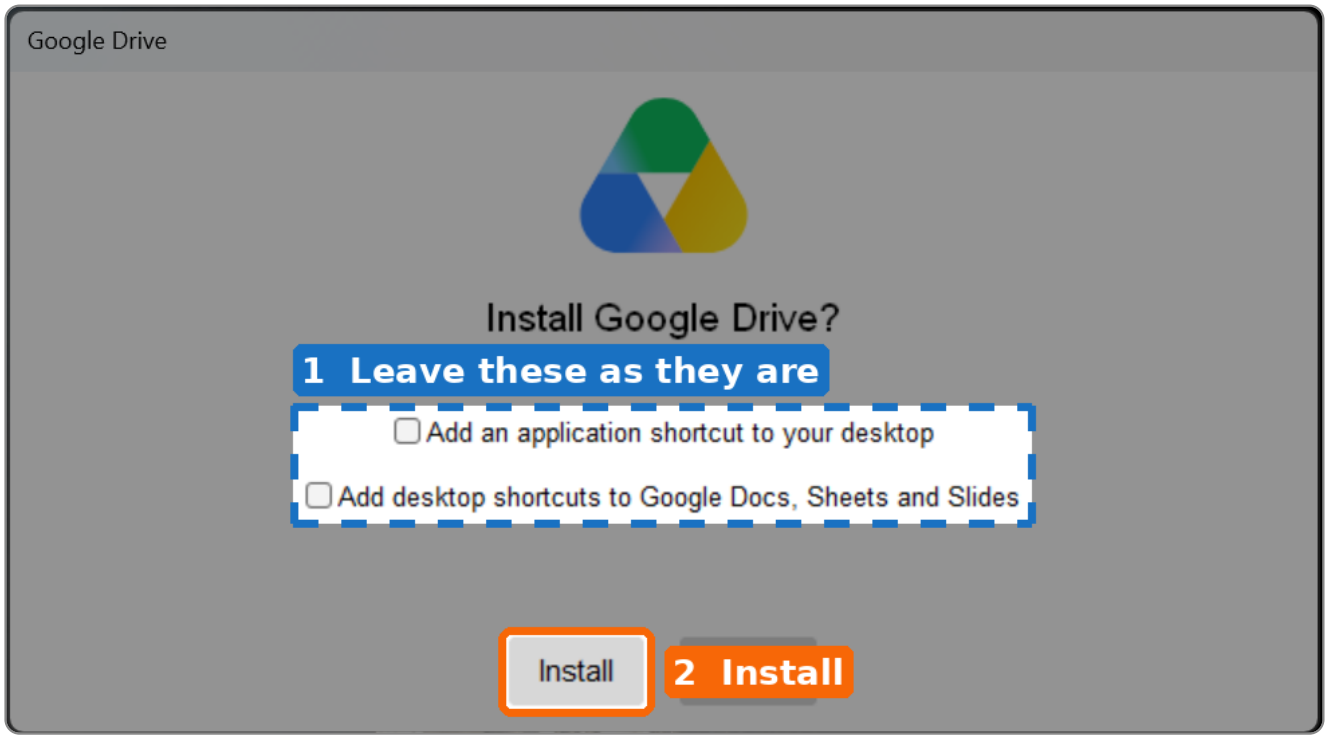

4

Google Drive › Install Google Drive?

Leave the shortcut boxes as they are.

Click Install.

Tick them only if you want shortcuts on your desktop.

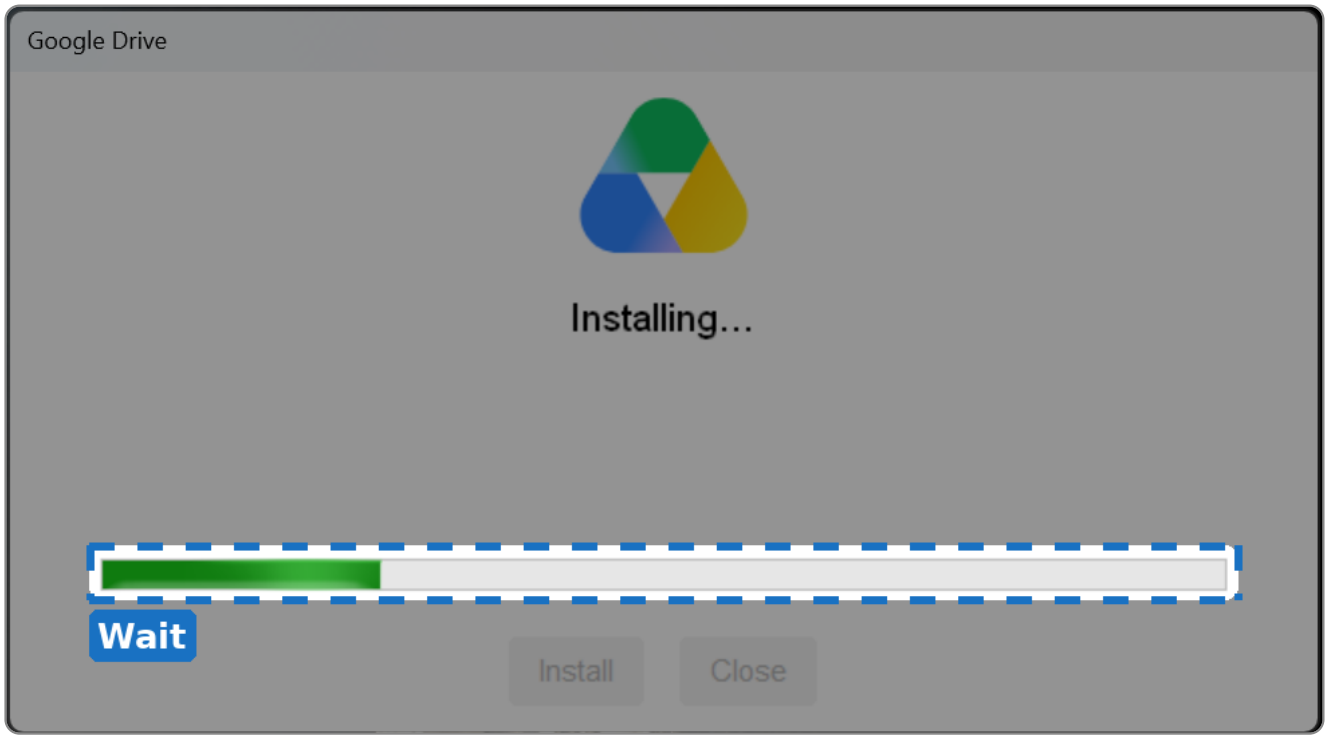

5

Google Drive › Installing

Wait while it installs.

This takes a minute or two.

6

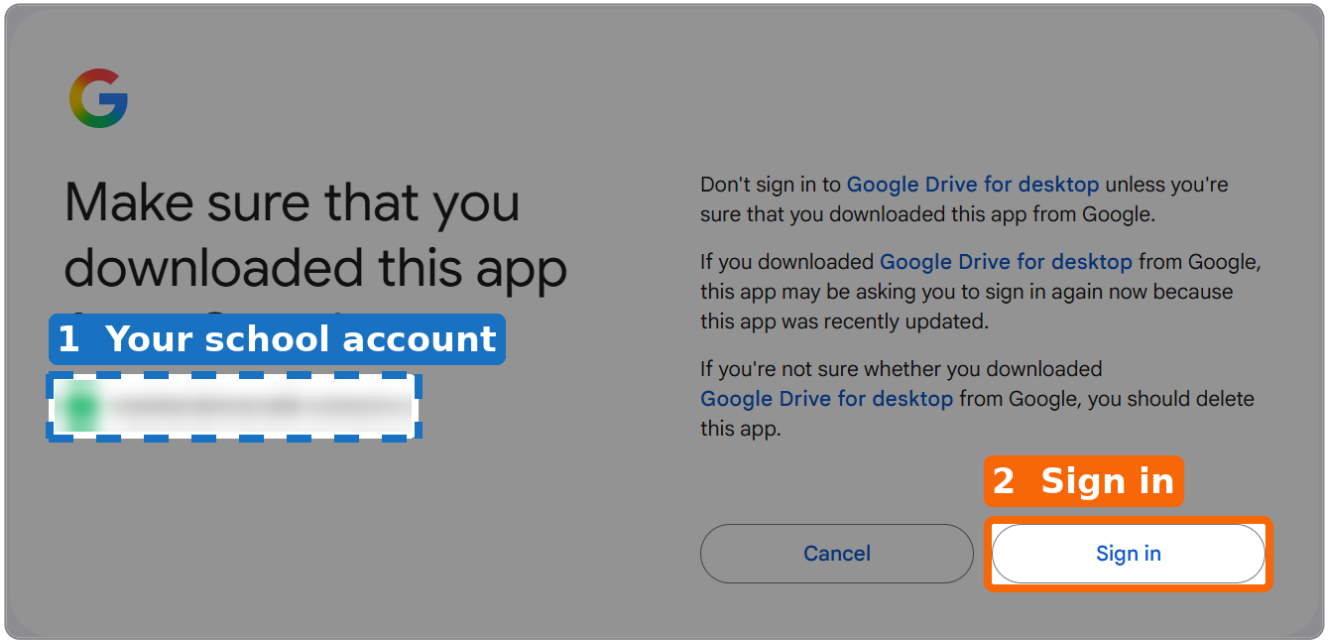

Chrome › Sign in to Google Drive

Drive opens Chrome to sign in. Choose your school account if asked.

Check it shows your school account.

Click Sign in.

This page checks you downloaded Drive from Google, which you did.

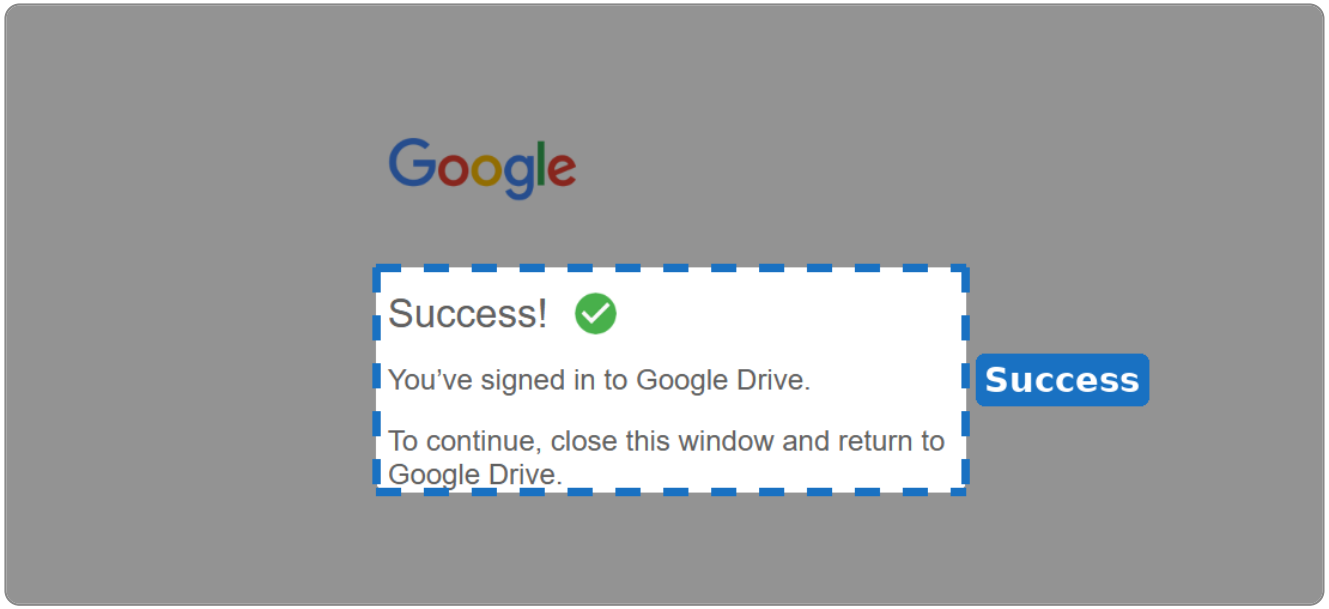

7

Chrome › Success

Close this tab.

Check: "Success! You've signed in to Google Drive."

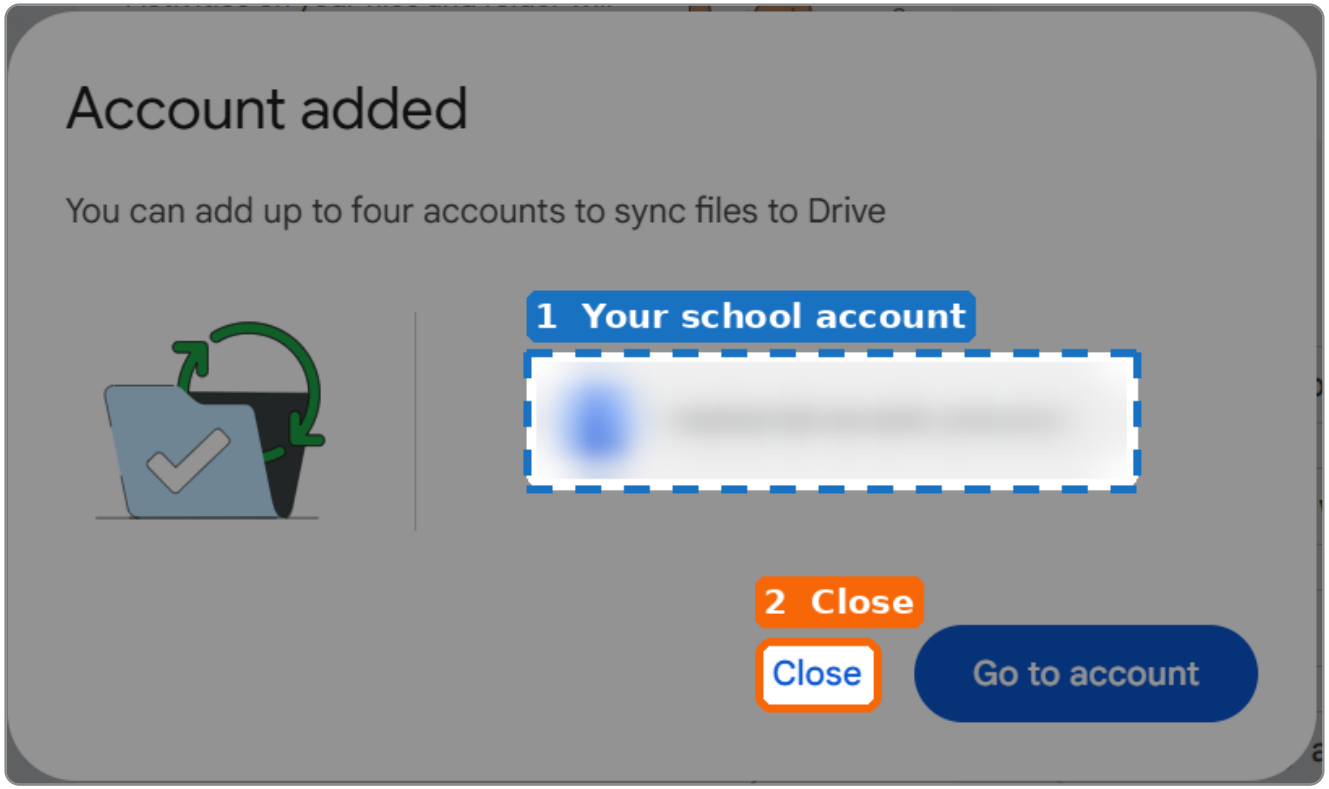

8

Google Drive › Account added

Check it shows your school account.

Click Close.

9

Google Drive › Home

Click Open Drive folder.

File Explorer opens at Google Drive (G:).

> Check: Your files are up to date, in Sync status.

Finding it again

File Explorer › Google Drive (G:) › My Drive. Your files are saved to Drive as soon as they're in this folder.

Signed out?

Click the Google Drive icon (bottom right, near the clock) and sign in again with your school account.
